THE MILLS OF JUSTICE.

Legal Grid Resumed in the District Supreme Court.

The several branches of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia convened yesterday morning for the October term. At an early hour the corridors of the City Hall were crowded, and for the first time since the Summer holidays began last July there seemed an air of business about the place. There was a hurrying of jurors and witnesses on all sides, and the deputy marshals and court clerks were kept busy acquainting strangers with the windings of the building.

The justices of the different courts were on hand promptly. The courts were presided over as follows: Criminal Court No. 1, Chief Justice Bingham, Mr. Gately, clerk; Criminal Court No. 2, Justice Bradley, Mr. Smith, clerk; Equity Court No. 1, Justice Cox, Mr. Clancy, clerk; Equity Court No. 2, Justice Hagner, Mr. O'Connell, clerk; Circuit Court No. 1, Justice Cole, Mr. Burnham, clerk; Circuit Court No. 2, Justice McComas, Mr. Downs, clerk.

The morning hours of the session were consumed in the criminal and circuit courts in the organization of the juries for the term. Assistant District Attorney Shillington Baker conducted this work in Criminal Courts Nos. 1 and 2, respectively.

Many of the jurors summoned were excused for various causes, and in consequence none of the panels was completed.

In Criminal Court No. 2, Justice Bradley presiding, the following prisoners were arraigned and entered their pleas: Lewis Fields and Martha Jackson, adultery, not guilty; Robert Smith and Alice Tolson, adultery, not guilty; Nathaniel Arnold, assault with intent to kill, not guilty; Joseph Simpson, housebreaking, not guilty; George Walker and Bruce Berkeley, housebreaking, not guilty; William Johnson and William Warfield, grand larceny, not guilty.

In the case of Thomas Brown and William Young, who are charged with the second offense of petty larceny, the former pleaded not guilty and the latter guilty.

The following assignment of cases for trial in the criminal courts was made for today:

In Criminal Court No. 1, Chief Justice Bingham presiding—Edward, alias William Bell, for a second offense of petty larceny, and Arthur Bell, for housebreaking.

In Criminal Court No. 2, Justice Bradley presiding—Robert Smith and Alice Tolson, and Lewis Fields and Martha Jackson will be put on trial for adultery, and Nathaniel Johnson for assault with intent to kill.

GUARDIAN FOR MAY P. BROWN.

A New Legal Turn in the Beall Will Case.

Charles S. Wilson was yesterday appointed guardian for May P. Brown, who is named as the sole legatee in the will of the late Robert Beall.

The petition of Miss Brown for the appointment of a guardian states that she is the legatee of the late Robert Beall; that H. Bowyer McDonald was named as executor of the will of the deceased, and that William J. Beall, representing himself to be a nephew of the testator, filed a caveat protesting against the validity of the will. Miss Brown, therefore, asked that a guardian be appointed to represent her in the proceedings in the case.

Crump, who is being sued by his wife, Edith Allan Crump, for divorce yesterday, through his attorneys, Hamilton & Colburn, filed notice with the clerk of the Supreme Court of the District that on Saturday he would move for a reduction of the alimony fixed by the court some time ago. When Mrs. Crump filed her petition for divorce the court ordered that her husband should pay her $5 per month during the pendency of the proceedings.

COOLER WEATHER PROMISED.

It Is Not, However, Due Until Tomorrow.

The faithful official who keeps tab on the weather at Twenty-fourth and M Streets promises cooling breezes within the next twenty-four hours. He said, however, that the excessive heat and heavy atmospheric conditions that have prevailed for several days will continue while longer and it will not be until tomorrow probably that sweltering humidity will be relieved.

The temperature was high yesterday amid the humidity very great. It is this combination of forces that has caused so much discomfort to citizens of Washington for the last few days.

This is caused by continuous winds that carry from the ocean inland the moisture which, with the unusually high temperature, makes the atmosphere heavy in the extreme.

Big Day for Patents.

The Patent Office yesterday granted 312 patents, 20 design patents, 19 trademarks, 11 labels, and 1 print. All but seventy patents and three trademarks were to residents of the United States. Of the foreign patents twenty-one went to England and twenty to Germany. In the United States, New York, Pennsylvania, and Illinois were the lead, receiving seventy-one, thirty-eight, and twenty-five, respectively.

President John Marbury, of the Oldest Inhabitants' Association, has announced a regular meeting of the society for tomorrow night, on which occasion Mr. J. Madison Cutts will speak on "The Times, Character and Influence of Dolly Madison." There is no "Oldest Inhabitant" old enough to remember a better whisky than Thury's pure "Berkeley." ## NOVEL MISSION WORK.

Series of Thirty Interdenominational Meetings Arranged.

A series of novel and somewhat unusual missionary meetings and rallies has been arranged to be held in this city beginning Saturday evening next and continuing a week under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Union and the Epworth League.

Perhaps never before in the history of religious services in the District of Columbia has any such series of meetings been held embracing as it does all the Protestant churches of the city of every denomination, creed and color. It will be practically a unity of creeds and beliefs for the purpose of fostering and maintaining interest in the great worldwide field of missionary endeavor in which all churches are interested.

The series of meetings are part of a national schedule of meetings and rallies to be held in all the cities of the country at the request of the Yale Missionary Band of five student volunteers in the cause of advancing foreign missions.

The members of the band graduated from Yale University last year and soon afterward originated the idea of sending young American students to those countries of the world which are fruitful mission fields. The five students are D. B. Eddy, of Kansas; A. B. Williams, of Pennsylvania; J. L. Thurston, of Massachusetts; Brownell Clark, of New York, and C. V. Viokey, of Nebraska, and the main object of their mission is to bring the attention of the church to the fact that thousands of contented young men are waiting to be sent to mission fields.

The purpose of the movement is therefore to awaken a stronger and deeper interest among the young people of the country, and to diffuse that interest through the church; and also to bring the attention of the church to the fact that thousands of contented young men are waiting to be sent to mission fields.

The movement is under the supervision of John R. Mott, of the World's Student Christian Federation.

PRICE PLEADS NOT GUILTY.

Alleged Robber of Superintendent Babender Arraigned.

John Price, who for a long time has been a fugitive from justice, and who was arrested in New York last July on the charge of robbing Arthur Babender, the superintendent of the Metropolitan Railway, of about $1,000 nearly two years ago, was arraigned in Criminal Court No. 1 yesterday. He pleaded not guilty.

When arrested in New York Price resisted extradition and gave bond in the sum of $3,000 for his appearance for trial. His bondsman, John J. Morris, of New York, who was present in court, together with his attorney, Abraham J. Rose, also of New York. His case was set for trial on the 5th of the present month.

Another Telephone Suit.

Another suit was filed yesterday against the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company for the purpose of restraining it from removing its instruments and appliances from the premises of a subscriber. The complainant is John J. Morris, who carries on a business at No. 122 New York Avenue. The plaintiff is represented by Messrs. Birney & Woodward and Hemphill & Peter. The complainant sets forth in his affidavit that he has been a subscriber to the service of the telephone company, who desire to avail themselves of the benefits of the act of Congress of June 20, 1885, fixing the rates for the telephone service in the District of Columbia.

TO CURE NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

To Gain Flesh, to Sleep Well, to Know What Appetite and Good Digestion Mean, Make a Test of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Interesting Experience of an Indianapolis Gentleman.

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think that their nerves are to blame, are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicines and Spring remedies; the real seat of mischief is lost sight of, the stomach is the origin to be looked after.

Nervous dyspepsia often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every other organ; in some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others, the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headaches; still others are troubled with loss of flesh and appetite, with the accumulation of gas, sour risings and heartburn.

Mr. A. W. Sharper, of No. 61 Prospect Street, Indianapolis, Ind., writes as follows: "I much of pure gratitude prompt me to write these few lines regarding the new and valuable medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I have been a sufferer from nervous dyspepsia for the last four years; have used various patent medicines and other remedies without any favorable result. They sometimes gave temporary relief until the effects of the medicine wore off. I attributed this to my sedentary habits, being a book-keeper with little physical exercise, but I am glad to state that the tablets have overcome all these obstacles, for I have gained in flesh, sleep better, and am better in every way. The above is written not for notoriety, but is based on actual facts."

"Respectfully yours," "A. W. SHARPER."

"61 Prospect Street, Indianapolis, Ind."

It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach. They cure sour stomach, gas, loss of flesh and appetite, sleeplessness, palpitation, heartburn, constipation and headaches.

Send for valuable little book on stomach diseases by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR IN REVIEW.

Local Commanderies Have an Interesting Program.

Yesterday was a gala day in the history of the Knights Templar of the District of Columbia, when the members of the Grand Commanderies of the city participated in the grand parade preparatory to their departure for Pittsburgh, where the triennial convocation of the order is to be held next week.

There was considerable deviation from the original plan as laid down in the program. It was intended that the commanderies should assemble at 4 o'clock at the hall at Ninth and F Streets northwest, and from that point proceed to the ellipse at the south of the White House where they were to be reviewed by the President, after having been inspected by Sir Knight E. C. Davis, the E. grand commander, assisted by the past grand commander of the District.

It was found on arrival at the ellipse, however, that the grass was too wet for the evolutions of the Knights; in consequence, after a long delay, the order was given to proceed to the square in front of the Arlington Hotel, where the inspection was held, in the presence of a vast crowd.

After the inspection the line of march was taken through the states of the Grand Commandery to be reviewed by the President and Mrs. McKinley.

The President stood uncovered and as each commandery passed he acknowledged the salute given by bowing, while Mrs. McKinley also bowed and smiled repeatedly. In a very few minutes the parade had passed and the Knights were on the way back to their various asylums.

The parade passed off without any accidents and barring the disappointment in not being able to drill and march in the parade, inspection, and review on the ellipse, everything passed off in the most satisfactory manner and all praise is due to the officers of the commanderies for the manner in which they met and overcame an unexpected difficulty.

The five commanderies of this city will leave for Pittsburgh the last of the week, with the exception of the Washington Commandery, No. 1, which will not start until Monday.

The grand convocation will remain in session five days. The great spectacular feature of the convocation will be the parade, in which about 22,000 men are expected to take part. This is about the same number that was in line in Washington in 1888, while during the convocation at Boston three years ago over 25,000 men marched in procession.

COLORED TROOPERS COMING.

Arrangements for a Welcome to the Tenth Cavalry.

The Tenth Cavalry, the colored troop that performed such heroic work at San Juan, will reach Washington at noon Friday on its way South. Arrangements are being made to tender a rousing welcome to the troop.

Mrs. Ayres, of No. 1272 New Hampshire Avenue, the wife of Capt. Ayres, the commander of the troop, has the matter of the arrangements in charge and Mr. Louis Glass, son of the late Frederick Douglass, is also interested in the reception.

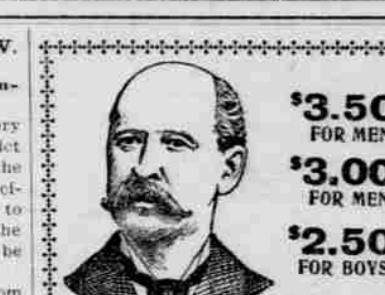

A fund is being raised to meet the expense of a collation at Potomac Hall at the corner of Eleventh Street and Maryland Avenue southeast. Donations and provisions should be sent to the hall where Miss Ida Neumeyer will gladly receive them.

Oldest Inhabitants Meeting.

A regular meeting of the Oldest Inhabitants' Association will be held tonight at the Corcoran Building. The public is invited to attend. Mr. J. Madison Cutts will speak on "The Times, Character and Influence of Dolly Madison." Mr. Cutts is a descendant of this famous occupant of the White House, who gave such socialuster to President Madison's administration.

BELT LINE BONDS.

Rumored Heavy Purchase by the Interest Controlling Syndicate.

A rumor is prevalent in financial circles to the effect that a large block of the bonds of the Belt Railroad has been sold to the syndicate controlling the interest in the stock. The purchase is said to have included about $50,000 of the bonds, which is much more than the control, as the total issue is but $60,000. This was not, however, the actual amount of money given, as the bonds, while having a par value of $100, are quoted at 45 and 55 asked. It is said that the price paid was $38. The object of the syndicate in acquiring this additional interest is supposed to be with a view to becoming a purchaser at the sale of the road, which is to be held by order of the court next month.

The road has been in the hands of a receiver for some time and no interest has been paid on the bonds for eighteen months. Legislation has been secured to allow of the sale of the road and a bill to that end was passed at the last session of Congress, and the new law permits the purchase of the road by any street railroad corporation in the District or by an individual set of individuals. The bill requires the payment of the money due the employees, and receiver's certificates have already been issued in liquidation of this debt. It also requires the payment of all other debts due and owing by the company.

In the event that those now owning the bulk of the securities of the road become the purchaser, then under the law the road can be operated as a part of the system of the City and Suburban Railroad, or by an independent company, composed, of course, of the same persons now in control of the City and Suburban. It is estimated that the equipment of the road with new motive power will involve the expenditure of about $750,000.

Sixth Cavalry, Now at Montana, Will Break Camp in a Day or Two and Go to Huntsville, Ala., without returning to Fort Myer. From Huntsville it will be sent to Cuba.

A meeting of the Telephone Subscribers' Association will be held at Willard Hall on Friday evening.

Comore & Collyer, the contractors engaged in constructing a house for George W. King, at the southeast corner of Third and F Streets, were yesterday required to leave $100,000 collateral at the Georgetown Police Station on a charge of allowing their pile of mortar to extend beyond a prescribed line. The hearing will take place this morning, and the contractor and owner of the property will be present in court to contest the case.

A special program of services has been arranged to be held in St. Luke's Church, corner of Fifteenth and Madison Streets northwest, as follows: Sunday, October 9, at 11 a. m., a special convention of preachers. Bishop Whately, of Kentucky, will preach, and at 8 p. m. Bishop Nelson, of Georgia, will preach. Sunday, October 16, there will be held the service of institution by the Bishop of Washington, and at 8 p. m. Bishop Leonard, of Ohio, will preach. Tuesday, October 18, at 7:30 p. m., Bishop Hall, of Vermont, will preach in celebration of "Name Day."
